It is now certain that Jay Gould will inaugurate a barge line from St. Louis to New Orleans. Twenty barges are now buing built on the Ohio river, and in othplaces, for the company, at an expense between $8,000 and $10,000 each, and a number of tug boats will also be built at a cost of $30,000. So far, orders have been given for four tug boats, which will e enough to handle twenty-five barges. The barge line will be worked in connec ion with the elevators at Carondelet, and at New Orleans with the floating elevators. Come on with your railroads .-

I do not wish to be considered bareb, ner do I wish to speculate on your delin-quency. But I am constrained to tell you candidly who have not paid their taxes for the years 1877 and 1878, that unless the same is paid promptly I shall levy upon and sell your property. Remember that the law allows fifty cents for every levy, and six per cent. additional, all of which must be paid by the party owing the taxes. Shall I make these costs, or will you pay up and save it yourselves?

That is the question. I mean business.
